The Ritual

The儀式of the Sacred Magic of Abramelin the Mage is a long and complex process. It takes place over a period of 18 months and requires the use of a variety of materials, including:

- A black mirror
- A white wand
- A red robe
- A black cap
- A silver amulet
- A golden ring
- A black book

The儀式begins with the preparation of the materials. The black mirror is used to scry for spirits. The white wand is used to command spirits. The red robe is worn to protect the magician from the spirits. The black cap is worn to conceal the magician's identity from the spirits. The silver amulet is worn to protect the magician from the spirits' attacks. The golden ring is worn to symbolize the magician's power over the spirits. The black book is used to record the magician's experiences with the spirits.

Once the materials are prepared, the magician begins the儀式. The儀式 consists of a series of prayers, invocations, and rituals. The magician must follow the instructions in the black book exactly. If the magician makes a mistake, the spirits will become angry and may attack the magician.

The儀式takes place over a period of 18 months. During this time, the magician must live in seclusion and devote themselves to the儀式. The magician must also avoid all contact with other people. If the magician breaks any of these rules, the spirits will become angry and may attack the magician.
